

Appliance Service Technician

A career as an Appliance Service Technician focuses on the troubleshooting and repair of all major appliances. Also, an Appliance Service Technician is able to work on commercial and residential major appliances.

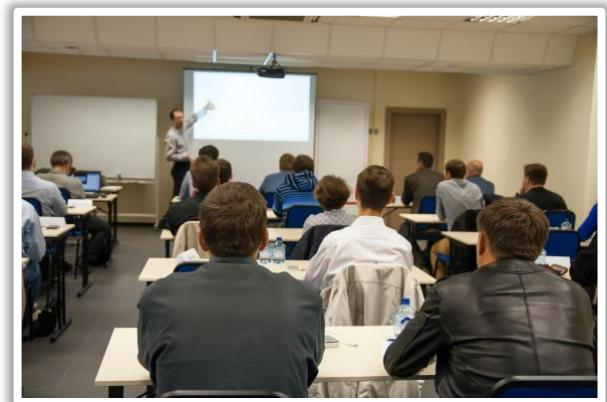

This program provides an overview of Basic Electricity and Electronics, and focuses on best practice for troubleshooting and repair of all major appliances. With a first-of-its-kind Domestic Refrigeration course, trusted by all global manufacturers, ensures that each student is job ready once they graduate. Areas of study include basic electricity and electronics, appliance servicing and repair, customer relations, and refrigeration and air conditioning.

Program length: 29 weeks - including 12 week internship

Program delivery format: on campus (Mississauga Campus)

Training on a Sealed System Refrigeration unit.

Appliance Service Technician in-class training.

Appliance Service Technician

Admission Requirements

- Minimum of a Canadian high school grade 12 or equivalent (high school transcript to be provided if under the age of 19), or a mature students (certified that the student is 19 years of age or over and has not attended high school in the last twelve months)
- Pass an entrance assessment administered by Appliance Technical Institute of Canada
- Be interviewed in detail regarding interest in the field
- Note: admissions to some program may include additional requirements

Course List

- Basic Electricity and Electronics
- Customer Relations
- Domestic Appliance Servicing and Repair
- Domestic Refrigeration and Air Conditioning
- In-field Experience

Career Outlook

The Appliance Service Technician program prepares students to work in various organizations in an Appliance Service Technician role. Graduates should find employment opportunities during their co-op placements in service companies, global manufacturers, or retail outlets of all sizes.

SAMPLE AVERAGE STARTING SALARY* (PAYSACLE.COM)

Market Range ⓘ

CA$44k - CA$83k

